Minimalists will be flocking to Tesco this autumn, thanks to a new three-in-one handwash, fragrance gel and air freshener. Freshorize, £2.99, dispenses a burst of fragrance from a cleverly hidden aerosol pump while supplying you with a blob of soap at the same time. Combined with a gel fragrance strip which releases a subtle scent for 30 days, the marine-colored gel and frosted glass bottle also manages to combine practically with looking good.
